

West Buxton Public Library invites you to join us for a reading of Billy Big Ears and Bob the Bully

Meet Miss Acadia High 2014 Alyssa Patterson and learn more about The Crown C.A.R.E.S. Program. Together we can put a stop to bullying!

The Crown C.A.R.E.S. program is helping people of all ages around

Alyssa will be presenting along with author Francine McEwen and illustrator Thomas Block on Saturday, May 17th beginning at 11 am at the Buxton Town Hall, 185 Portland Rd. Buxton, ME.

For more information, contact the West Buxton Public Library at 207-727-5898.

Meet the Author

Francine McEwen wrote her book based on the belief that all bullying starts with hurtful words. Francine is a big supporter of stand up against bullying. She wrote the book Billy Big Ears and Bob the Bully to show both sides of the issue and to bring to life new discussions about this age-old topic.

Meet the Illustrator

Thomas retired from teaching art in midcoast Maine in 2011 to pursue a career in freelance illustration. He currently works as a free agent with Maine Authors Publishing and illustrated Billy Big Ears and Bob the Bully, Togus: A Coon Cat Finds a Home, Star of Wonder, Baxter in the Blaine House as well as a number of other works for young adults.

Books will be available for purchase at the event!

